Prayer for Everyday

God, give me eyes that I might see
The work that can be done by me;
God, give me lips that I might speak
Comfort and peace to all who seek;
God, give me a mind, that I might know
How to help those who need me so.
God, give me hands that I might do
Some large or simple task for You;
God, give me a prayer, that I may pray
Thy help and guidance every day.
And this one thing, all else above;
God, give me a heart, that I may love.

VALEDICTORY

It is my privilege as a member of the graduating class to bid you a fond farewell. As we leave, we wish to express appreciation for all that has been done for us. We shall never forget your love, patience, and understanding. We are deeply grateful for the opportunities that we have had here, and we sincerely hope that we will be an honor to you in the years to come.

This day marks a goal toward which we have been striving for many years. It is time for us to leave dear I.S.S.D. and go into new fields. We are happy to take our places in the world, but sad that we must leave our school and friends.

Perhaps we shall never meet again as a class, but we shall always remember these years as our happiest. We wish the school and all future classes the very best of success.

Good by and God bless you everyone.

SALUTATORY

Dr. Groesbeck, honored guests, Dr. Raney, parents, teachers, and friends:

We, the Class of 1956, wish to extend to you a joyous welcome. We feel honored to have you share this happy occasion with us. Your presence here shows your interest in us and in our school, and we greatly appreciate it.

We want to thank each of you for your inspiration and guidance all through the years. We appreciate what our parents have done for us by sending us to this fine school, and we are grateful to our teachers for their tireless efforts in helping us prepare for the future. We wish to express our appreciation to our superintendent, Dr. Jackson A. Raney, for his great interest and kind helpfulness throughout our happy years at I. S. S. D.

Again, let me say that you are most sincerely welcome, and we do wish to thank you for coming to our graduation.
